4. JOHN^2 SWEET, who was born in England about 1620. He appears to have been a law-abiding, respected and frequently honored member of the towns of Providence and Warwick, R. I. He and his younger brother James are included among 31 persons, who were admitted with the 12 original purchasers of Warwick previous to June 5, 1648. On June 2, 1651, and again on June 1, 1658, he was appointed Sergeant. In 1655, at Warwick, he was taxed for having in his possession "an anker," ten gallons, "of liquor." In 1655 he was made a freeman and on Oct. 18, 1660, he was a Commissioner from Newport. In 1660 he bought lands at Narragansett (Kingstown), and in 1671 he was living at Acquidnessett (Wickford). He had a grist mill and other works on the Potowomut and was burnt out by the Indians during King Philip's war, 1675. He died in 1677, after July 16. His will is dated 1677 at Newport. He is said to have married, about 1651, ELIZABETH JEFFREY, who was born in 1629 and died 1684. They had the following children:

i. John, m. Deborah Reynolds.

He and his younger brother James are included among 31 persons, who were admitted with the 12 original purchasers of Warwick previous to June 6, 1648. On June 2, 1651, and again on June 1, 1658, he was appointed Sergeant. In 1655, at Warwick, he was taxed for having in his possession "an anker," ten gallons, "of liquor." In 1655 he was made a freeman and on Oct. 18, 1660, he was a Commissioner from Newport. In 1660 he bought lands at Narragansett (Kingstown), and in 1671 he was living at Acquidnessett (Wickford). He had a grist mill and other works on the Potowomut and was burnt out by the Indians during King Philip's war, 1675. He died in 1677, after July 16. His will is dated 1677 at Newport. He is said to have married, about 1651, ELIZABETH JEFFREY, who was born in 1629 and died 1684. They had the following children:

"there to Examine the Prisoners who belong to this Town" and also "to Liberate said Prisoners if they will." At any rate Francis was soon restored to the good graces of his neighbors, because he was elected one of the surveyors of highways on March 27, 1780. The Federal Census of 1790 shows FRANCIS living side by side with his son JONATHAN at Cambridge, then in Albany County (now in Washington County), in New York State, and legal documents show that FRANCIS was still in Cambridge in 1792. A search has been made for his will or for any record of his estate in the six southern counties of Vermont, in the nearby counties of New York and in Otsego County, to which his son JONATHAN removed, but without result. It is, therefore, difficult to say when or where FRANCIS died. FRANCIS

8. The REV. JONATHAN^{6} SWEET married TEMPERANCE HOLDREDGE (see the HOLDREDGE line) at Hancock, Mass., on , 1782. For some time after his marriage he lived at Hancock. When the boundary dispute between New York and Massachusetts was settled in 1786 part of Hancock fell into Stephentown, New York. JONATHAN must have lived in this section, for he was taxed in the Stephentown county tax on June 20, 1789, at 7s. 3d. On the next tax list of May 22, 1790, his name does not appear, which pretty definitely fixes the date of his removal to Cambridge, N. Y. In 1790 he is listed in the First Census as living at Cambridge, New York, beside his father, and at that period

8. The REV. JONATHAN^6 SWEET married TEMPERANCE HOLDREDGE (see the HOLDREDGE line) at Hancock, Mass., on   , 1782. For some time after his marriage he lived at Hancock. When the boundary dispute between New York and Massachusetts was settled in 1786 part of Hancock fell into Stephentown, New York. JONATHAN must have lived in this section, for he was taxed in the Stephentown county tax on June 20, 1789, at 7s. 3d. On the next tax list of May 22, 1790, his name does not appear, which pretty definitely fixes the date of his removal to Cambridge, N. Y. In 1790 he is listed in the First Census as living at Cambridge, New York, beside his father, and at that period and place one male over 16, one male under 16, and two females were living with him, beside his wife, although the census unfortunately does not classify them according to relationship. He apparently continued at Cambridge until 1794, in which year he removed to Burlington in Otsego County, New York, where he is variously described in legal documents as "Yeoman" and "Farmer." In 1794 he made a profession of faith at Burlington, and united in organizing the Second Baptist Church there.

It is said that soon afterwards he commenced the public reading and expounding of the Scriptures by request of the members of the church. Unfortunately the records of this church were destroyed by fire about 1915. In 1812 JONATHAN was ordained, and he was the pastor of the Second Baptist Church until February, 1822. In the Otsego Association minutes his name appears as messenger as early as 1801 and continues to 1821. The records of the First Baptist Church at Burlington contain the following entries:

"June 29, 1820. * * * Met agreabel to ajurnment and chose Elder Jonathan Sweet moderator for the time being * * *."

"May 5th, 1821. Voted that Bro. George W. Leonard should wright a letter * * * to the second church in Burlington for Elder Jonathan Sweet" to "attend with us on our next comunion season."

Meanwhile four of JONATHAN'S nine children had moved to Illinois and wished to have him there. In the winter of 1821-22 his eldest son, PELEG, returned to help him move.

The following is a copy of JONATHAN'S letter of dismissal:

He apparently continued at Cambridge until 1794, in which year he removed to Burlington in Otsego County, New York, where he is variously described in legal documents as "Yeoman" and "Farmer." In 1794 he made a profession of faith at Burlington, and united in organizing the Second Baptist Church there.

It is said that soon afterwards he commenced the public reading and expounding of the Scriptures by request of the members of the church. Unfortunately the records of this church were destroyed by fire about 1915. In 1812 JONATHAN was ordained, and he was the pastor of the Second Baptist Church until February, 1822. In the Otsego Association minutes his name appears as messenger as early as 1801 and continues to 1821. The records of the First Baptist Church at Burlington contain the following entries:

"June 29, 1820. * * * Met agreabel to ajurnment and chose Elder Jonathan Sweet moderator for the time being * * *."

"May 5th, 1821. Voted that Bro. George W. Leonard should wright a letter * * * to the second church in Burlington for Elder Jonathan Sweet" to "attend with us on our next comunion season."

Meanwhile four of JONATHAN'S nine children had moved to Illinois and wished to have him there. In the winter of 1821-22 his eldest son, PELEG, returned to help him move.

"Church Letter to Elder Jonathan Sweet.

"Done by order and in behalf of the church.

"RICHARD HARRINGTON,
"Feb. 16, 1822. Church Clerk."

Their journey commenced in February, 1822, and they travelled about two hundred miles by wagon to Olean Point in New York, the head of navigation on the Allegheny, which flowed into the Ohio river. There they waited for the building of a family boat on which they partly rowed and partly floated down with the current to Shawneetown, Illinois. JONATHAN remained in the neighborhood for about a year, preaching almost every Sunday in log houses at various places, there being no churches or frame houses.

In 1823 he went by wagon across the prairies to Diamond Grove in Morgan County, Illinois, about five miles southeast of where Jacksonville was built afterwards. Within a month after his arrival, on April 26, 1823, the Diamond Grove Society of Baptists, one of the oldest in Illinois, was constituted. At the next business meeting he was called to be pastor. He was also the first moderator of the Springfield Baptist Association of Churches. On January 18, 1825, JONATHAN SWEET, SR., was chosen the first Public Administrator of Morgan

"Church Letter to Elder Jonathan Sweet.

"Done by order and in behalf of the church,

"RICHARD HARRINGTON,
"Feb. 15, 1822. Church Clerk."

Their journey commenced in February, 1822, and they traveled about two hundred miles by wagon to Olean Point in New York, the head of navigation on the Allegheny, which flows into the Ohio River. There they waited for the building of a family boat on which they partly rowed and partly floated down with the current to Shawneetown, Illinois. JONATHAN remained in the neighborhood for about a year, preaching almost every Sunday in log houses at various places, there being no churches or frame houses.

In 1822 he went by wagon across the prairies to Diamond Grove in Morgan County, Illinois, about five miles southeast of where Jacksonville was built afterwards. Within a month after his arrival, on April 26, 1823, the Diamond Grove Society of Baptists, one of the oldest in Illinois, was constituted. At the next business meeting he was called to be pastor. He was also the first moderator of the Springfield Baptist Association of Churches. On January 16, 1825, JONATHAN SWEET, Sr., was chosen the first Public Administrator of Morgan

9. PELEG^7 SWEET married ABIGAIL COOK BARDEEN (see the BARDEEN line) at N. Y., on July 3, 1808. Soon after his marriage he began to think of trying his fortune in the West, but he did not leave New York for several years. Immediately before 1812 he had been living at Burlington, N. Y., because his name and his father's and that of his brother Joseph appear as witnesses on the will of his great uncle, David Sweet, which was admitted to probate in Otsego County, N. Y., on February 12, 1812. In 1812 he spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West, receiving much opposition. In 1812 he and his family removed to Ohio.

In 1818 he went to ~~the~~ Territory of Illinois. It then took three months to make the journey. He and his family first settled at or near Shawneetown in Gallatin County in the southern part of the Territory, as the northern part was under the control of the Indians and unsafe for white men. Here they endured the privations of a frontier life, living on hominy and deer meat for months; their shelter a log hut, floorless and doorless. They were surrounded by wild beasts and their nearest neighbor was six miles away. The few citizens made their own laws and were sometimes obliged to tie up and whip the offenders.

As the danger from the Indians decreased he and his family moved northward and settled at Diamond Grove, southeast of Jacksonville. He undoubtedly moved to Morgan County at the same time as his father, JONATHAN, because he and his brother Robert signed together the constitution of the Morganian Society, an anti-slavery society, which is supposed to have been constituted in 1823. 9. PELEG' SWEET married ABIGAIL COOK BARDEEN (see the BARDEEN line) at N. Y., on July 3, 1808. Soon after his marriage he began to think of trying his fortune in the West, but he did not leave New York for several years. Immediately before 1812 he had been living at Burlington, N. Y., because his name and his father's and that of his brother Joseph appear as witnesses on the will of his great uncle, David Sweet, which was admitted to probate in Otsego County, N. Y., on February 12, 1812. In 1812 he spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West, receiving much opposition. In 1812 he and his family removed to Ohio.

In 1818 he went to ~~the~~ Territory of Illinois. It then took three months to make the journey. He and his family first settled at or near Shawneetown in Gallatin County in the southern part of the Territory, as the northern part was under the control of the Indians and unsafe for white men. Here they endured the privations of a frontier life, living on hominy and deer meat for months; their shelter a log hut, floorless and doorless. They were surrounded by wild beasts and their nearest neighbor was six miles away. The few citizens made their own laws and were sometimes obliged to tie up and whip the offenders.

As the danger from the Indians decreased he and his family moved northward and settled at Diamond Grove, southeast of Jacksonville. He undoubtedly moved to Morgan County at the same time as his father, JONATHAN, because he and his brother Robert signed together the constitution of the Morganian Society, an anti-slavery society, which is supposed to have been constituted in 1823. Not far from his signature appears that of another brother, Joseph Sweet. In any case he was there before 1830, according to the county records.

In 1843 he traded for a large tract of land at Washburn in Woodford County, to which he removed in 1846. Here he called all his children to him and settled them around him, which was a great pleasure to him in his declining years. At Washburn he was active in the affairs of the Baptist Church, as he had been elsewhere.

In the History of the Baptist Churches of Woodford County, Ill., by A. F. Marshall, n. p., 1913, it is said at page 13, with reference to the Washburn Baptist Church:

> "* * * One of the principal founders of the church was PELEG SWEET, a brother of Elder Joel Sweet. He had a family of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters, all members of the church, the husbands of the daughters all having been baptized, and nine of the grandchildren, all on profession of faith, making over thirty in his family belonging to the church. The membership at that time was seventy-five."

PELEG died at Washburn on Sept. 8, 1850. ABIGAIL died on Nov. 13, 1870.

There is no known record of how, who or when this original 1929 manuscript of the history of Rev. Jonathan Sweet . It was given to me shortly after I began my research in 1986 by Elsie Swanson (John) Wooley. The blue ink notes were made by her. She crossed out the line that says one of our relatives was taxed because he having liquor – she didn't like that sentence! She came into the family in 1954.

Using the facts she knew from family members, she filled in some of the blanks and retyped the whole manuscript. However she failed to mention John Wooley's 1st wife, Helen Burkland. They were divorced in n 1953. No issue from either marriage.

I began using the LDS (Morman) libraries and found a later manuscript t of this family done in 1939. It was given as a gift by Elsie O. Mortensen in 1954 to the Genealogical Society of Utah. The film number at LDS is 034832. It contains much more information that the 1st one and branches out to cover many of the allied families.

It is my hope that all my research will help someone else to carry on these families and keep the records going. Doing this research has been the most enjoyable thing I have ever done. Please forgive any errors or commissions.

There is no known record of how, who or when this original 1929 manuscript of the history of Rev. Jonathan Sweet . It was given to me shortly after I began my research in 1986 by Elsie Swanson (John) Wooley. The blue ink notes were made by her. She crossed out the line that says one of our relatives was taxed because he having liquor – she didn't like that sentence! She came into the family in 1954.

Using the facts she knew from family members, she filled in some of the blanks and retyped the whole manuscript. However she failed to mention John Wooley's 1st wife, Helen Burkland. They were divorced in n 1953. No issue from either marriage.

I began using the LDS (Morman) libraries and found a later manuscript t of this family done in 1939. It was given as a gift by Elsie O. Mortensen in 1954 to the Genealogical Society of Utah. The film number at LDS is 034832. It contains much more information that the 1st one and branches out to cover many of the allied families.

It is my hope that all my research will help someone else to carry on these families and keep the records going. Doing this research has been the most enjoyable thing I have ever done. Please forgive any errors or commissions.

SWEET

1. JOHN SWETE of England inherited Trayne or Traine in Modbury, Devonshire, England, about 1540. The Sweets had been living in that neighborhood since 1438. Among his children were Adrian and ROBERT (2). Adrian Sweet had a son, John, who came to Boston, so that John of Boston and JOHN[1] (3) of Rhode Island were cousins. According to a genealogy given in the Visitation of Devon in 1620, JOHN SWEET'S wife was MARY PERIAM, daughter of JOHN PERIAM (who was the son of WILLIAM PERIAM), and of MARGARET HONE of Ottery St. Mary, who was the daughter of ROBERT HONE.

2. ROBERT SWEET married JOHANNA. Their son JOHN[1] (3) was born in Devonshire, probably at Modbury, in 1579.

3. JOHN[1] SWEET, the immigrant ancestor, married MARY   in England. He came to America, probably in the Mary and John, in 1630, together with his wife, his two sons, JOHN[2] and James, and his daughter, Meribah, later renamed Renewed, who later married Jan Gereardy of New York. They first settled at Salem. In Felt's Annals of Salem, Vol. 2, p. 456, it is stated that "June 6th, 1637, John Sweet is fined for killing a wolf dog of Gov. Endicott's in the yard of the latter." It is said that in the same year JOHN removed to Providence with Roger Williams. He must have died about 1638, in which year his widow married Ezekiel Holliman. She died in 1681. JOHN'S land in Providence is said to have been where the present State House now stands. That MARY'S husband was JOHN and not Isaac, as is commonly said, is proved by a deed of their younger son, James, given in Kingston, R. I., Nov. 8, 1686, in which he speaks of "my father, John Sweet, deceased, who was one of the first purchasers of Providence." See The Owl, Vol. 2, No. 2. His elder son was

4. JOHN^{2} SWEET, who was born in England about 1620. He appears to have been a law-abiding, respected and frequently honored member of the towns of Providence and Warwick, R. I. He and his younger brother James are included among 31 persons, who were admitted with the 12 original purchasers of Warwick previous to June 5, 1648. On June 2, 1651, and again on June 1, 1658, he was appointed Sergeant. In 1655, at Warwick, he was taxed for having in his possession "an anker," ten gallons, "of liquor." In 1655 he was made a freeman and on Oct. 18, 1660, he was a Commissioner from Newport. In 1660 he bought lands at Narragansett (Kingstown), and in 1671 he was living at Acquidnessett (Wickford). He had a grist mill and other works on the Potowomut and was burnt out by the Indians during King Philip's war, 1675. He died in 1677, after July 16. His will is dated 1677 at Newport. He is said to have married, about 1651, ELIZABETH JEFFREY, who was born in 1629 and died 1684. They had the following children:

i. John, m. Deborah Reynolds.
ii. Daniel, m. Eleanor Carpenter.
iii. James, m. Jane Browning.

7. FRANCIS^5 SWEET married SARAH (HERRINGTON?). The birth of their first five children is recorded in the Vital Records of Rhode Island. Their sixth child also appears to have been born there, while their seventh child was born at Hancock, Mass., so it seems clear that they removed from West Greenwich to Hancock between 1761 and 1763. In the Revolution FRANCIS was a royalist and was therefore imprisoned in the Berkshire County jail at Great Barrington, Mass. The Hancock town records contain this entry under date of September 8, 1777: "22. Voted that Francis Sweet be continued in confinement." When he was liberated does not appear, but it was probably in December, 1777, as a committee from the town was appointed to go to Great Barrington as living at Pawling, N. Y. His wife was a Mayflower descendant. His son, Theophilus^6, Jr., was one of the early settlers of Sangamon County, Ill., and had nine children. Theophilus^5, Senior, also had a daughter, Lydia^6, who married Sylvester Howard, and three of their sons married three of PELEG^7 SWEET'S daughters. The Howard line is as follows:

ZEPHANIAH HOWARD, son of WILLIAM HOWARD and Mary, was b. Oct. 6, 1731, and d. Oct. 16, 1813. He married Valeriah Wooley, b. Mar. 17, 1737, d. Apr. 25, 1813.

Children:

SYLVESTER HOWARD, b. June 15, 1772, in Dutchess County, N. Y., died Feb. 18, 1858, in Morgan County, Ill.; he married Dec. 13, 1793, in Dutchess County, N. Y., LYDIA^6 SWEET, born March 30, 1775, in Dutchess County, N. Y., died Nov. 13, 1855, in Morgan County, Ill. LYDIA^6 was the daughter of THEOPHILUS^5 SWEET.

Children:
i. Matilda, b. July 3, 1794.
ii. Anna, b. Oct. 29, 1795.
iii. Catherina, b. Jan. 1, 1797.

"there to Examine the Prisoners who belong to this Town" and also "to Liberate said Prisoners if they will." At any rate Francis was soon restored to the good graces of his neighbors, because he was elected one of the surveyors of highways on March 27, 1780. The Federal Census of 1790 shows FRANCIS living side by side with his son JONATHAN at Cambridge, then in Albany County (now in Washington County), in New York State, and legal documents show that FRANCIS was still in Cambridge in 1792. A search has been made for his will or for any record of his estate in the six southern counties of Vermont, in the nearby counties of New York and in Otsego County, to which his son JONATHAN removed, but without result. It is, therefore, difficult to say when or where FRANCIS died. FRANCIS

"there to Examine the Prisoners who belong to this Town" and also "to Liberate said Prisoners if they will." At any rate Francis was soon restored to the good graces of his neighbors, because he was elected one of the surveyors of highways on March 27, 1780. The Federal Census of 1790 shows FRANCIS living side by side with his son JONATHAN at Cambridge, then in Albany County (now in Washington County), in New York State, and legal documents show that FRANCIS was still in Cambridge in 1792. A search has been made for his will or for any record of his estate in the six southern counties of Vermont, in the nearby counties of New York and in Otsego County, to which his son JONATHAN removed, but without result. It is, therefore, difficult to say when or where FRANCIS died. FRANCIS

8. The REV. JONATHAN^{6} SWEET married TEMPERANCE HOLDREDGE (see the HOLDREDGE line) at Hancock, Mass., on , 1782. For some time after his marriage he lived at Hancock. When the boundary dispute between New York and Massachusetts was settled in 1786 part of Hancock fell into Stephentown, New York. JONATHAN must have lived in this section, for he was taxed in the Stephentown county tax on June 20, 1789, at 7s. 3d. On the next tax list of May 22, 1790, his name does not appear, which pretty definitely fixes the date of his removal to Cambridge, N. Y. In 1790 he is listed in the First Census as living at Cambridge, New York, beside his father, and at that period and place one male over 16, one male under 16, and two females were living with him, beside his wife, although the census unfortunately does not classify them according to relationship. He apparently continued at Cambridge until 1794, in which year he removed to Burlington in Otsego County, New York, where he is variously described in legal documents as "Yeoman" and "Farmer." In 1794 he made a profession of faith at Burlington, and united in organizing the Second Baptist Church there.

It is said that soon afterwards he commenced the public reading and expounding of the Scriptures by request of the members of the church. Unfortunately the records of this church were destroyed by fire about 1915. In 1812 JONATHAN was ordained, and he was the pastor of the Second Baptist Church until February, 1822. In the Otsego Association minutes his name appears as messenger as early as 1801 and continues to 1821. The records of the First Baptist Church at Burlington contain the following entries:

"June 29, 1820. * * * Met agreabel to ajurnment and chose Elder Jonathan Sweet moderator for the time being * * *."

"May 5th, 1821. Voted that Bro. George W. Leonard should wright a letter * * * to the second church in Burlington for Elder Jonathan Sweet" to "attend with us on our next comunion season."

Meanwhile four of JONATHAN'S nine children had moved to Illinois and wished to have him there. In the winter of 1821-22 his eldest son, PELEG, returned to help him move.

"Church Letter to Elder Jonathan Sweet.

"Done by order and in behalf of the church.

"RICHARD HARRINGTON,
"Feb. 16, 1822. Church Clerk."

Their journey commenced in February, 1822, and they travelled about two hundred miles by wagon to Olean Point in New York, the head of navigation on the Allegheny, which flowed into the Ohio river. There they waited for the building of a family boat on which they partly rowed and partly floated down with the current to Shawneetown, Illinois. JONATHAN remained in the neighborhood for about a year, preaching almost every Sunday in log houses at various places, there being no churches or frame houses.

In 1823 he went by wagon across the prairies to Diamond Grove in Morgan County, Illinois, about five miles southeast of where Jacksonville was built afterwards. Within a month after his arrival, on April 26, 1823, the Diamond Grove Society of Baptists, one of the oldest in Illinois, was constituted. At the next business meeting he was called to be pastor. He was also the first moderator of the Springfield Baptist Association of Churches. On January 18, 1825, JONATHAN SWEET, Sr., was chosen the first Public Administrator of Morgan County. He died on December 20, 1837, and was buried in the churchyard, his stone being inscribed, "He was a faithful pioneer Minister of Christ." He preached his last sermon, only a week before his death, from II Cor. 4:3-4, speaking with unusual earnestness, and passed to his reward in the midst of a revival. TEMPERANCE died in November, 1842. The graves remain today, although the church was torn down several years ago. The marriage register kept by JONATHAN from 1812 to 1830, was published in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record for January, 1930. A list of the children of JONATHAN and TEMPERANCE, possibly not complete, follows:

i. (9) PELEG (of further mention), b. May 3, 1786, probably at Hancock, Mass.

ii. (10) Joseph (of further mention), b. March 15, 1789, probably at Stephentown, N. Y.

iii. Job. b. , 1790.

iv. (11) Robert (of further mention), b. 1791, at Cambridge, N. Y.

v. (12) Joel (of further mention), b. 1794, probably at Burlington, N. Y.

vi. Anna, probably died young.

vii. Joanna, probably died young.

viii. Alva, b. , 1800, at Burlington, N. Y.

ix. Sarah, b. 1802, at Burlington, N. Y., m. Elekam Howard at Morgan County, Ill., on Jan. 2, 1825.

x. Lois, b. , 1805, at Burlington, N. Y., m. Peris Holmes at Morgan County, Ill., on Nov. 2, 1823.

xi. (13) Francis (of further mention), b.
1808, at Burlington, N. Y.

9. PELEG^{7} SWEET married ABIGAIL COOK BARDEEN (see the BARDEEN line) at   N. Y., on July 3, 1808. Soon after his marriage he began to think of trying his fortune in the West, but he did not leave New York for several years. Immediately before 1812 he had been living at Burlington, N. Y., because his name and his father's and that of his brother Joseph appear as witnesses on the will of his great uncle, David Sweet, which was admitted to probate in Otsego County, N. Y., on February 12, 1812. In 1812 he spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West, receiving much opposition. In 1812 he and his family removed to Ohio.

In 1818 he went to the Territory of Illinois. It then took three months to make the journey. He and his family first settled at or near Shawneetown in Gallatin County in the southern part of the Territory, as the northern part was under the control of the Indians and unsafe for white men. Here they endured the privations of a frontier life, living on hominy and deer meat for months; their shelter a log hut, floorless and doorless. They were surrounded by wild beasts and their nearest neighbor was six miles away. The few citizens made their own laws and were sometimes obliged to tie up and whip the offenders.

As the danger from the Indians decreased he and his family moved northward and settled at Diamond Grove, southeast of Jacksonville. He undoubtedly moved to Morgan County at the same time as his father, JONATHAN, because he and his brother Robert signed together the constitution of the Morganian Society, an anti-slavery society, which is supposed to have been constituted in 1823. Not far from his signature appears that of another brother, Joseph Sweet. In any case he was there before 1830, according to the county records.

In 1843 he traded for a large tract of land at Washburn in Woodford County, to which he removed in 1846. Here he called all his children to him and settled them around him, which was a great pleasure to him in his declining years. At Washburn he was active in the affairs of the Baptist Church, as he had been elsewhere.

In the History of the Baptist Churches of Woodford County, Ill., by A. F. Marshall, n. p., 1913, it is said at page 13, with reference to the Washburn Baptist Church:

> "* * * One of the principal founders of the church was PELEG SWEET, a brother of Elder Joel Sweet. He had a family of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters, all members of the church, the husbands of the daughters all having been baptized, and nine of the grandchildren, all on profession of faith, making over thirty in his family belonging to the church. The membership at that time was seventy-five."

PELEG died at Washburn on Sept. 8, 1850. ABIGAIL died on Nov. 13, 1870.

JOHN SWEET MARRIED MARY (maiden name not known). He came to America from Wales about 1632, accompanied by his wife, two sons and a daughter, and first settled at Salem. In Felt's Annals of Salem, vol. 2, p. 456, it is stated that "June 6th, 1637 John Sweet was fined for killing a wolf dog of Gov. Endicott's in the yard of the latter. It is said that in the same year John removed to Providence with Roger Williams, who was also a Welshman. He must have died about 1638, in which year his widow married Ezekliel Holliman. John's land in Providence is said to have been where the present State House now stands. That Mary's husband was John and not Issac, as is commonly said , is proved by a deed of their younger son, James, given in Kingston, R. I., Nov. 8, 1686, in which he speaks of " my father, John Sweet, deceased, who was one of the first purchasers of Providence." See The Owl, Vol. 2, No. 2. His elder son was (not known).

JOHN SWEET, who was born in Wales about 1620. He appears to have been a lawabiding, respected and frquently honored member of the towns of Providence and Warwick, R. I. He and his younger brother, James, are included among the 31 persons, who were admitted with the 12 original purchasers of Warwick previous to June 5, 1648. On June 2, 1651 and again on June 1, 1658, he was appointed Sergeant. In 1655 he was made on October 18, 1660 a Commissioner from Newport. In 1660 he bought land at Narragansett (Kingstown), and in 1671 he was living at Acquidnessett (Wickford). He had a grist mill and other works on the Potowomut and was burnt out by the Indians during King Philip's war, 1675. He died in 1677 after July 16. His will is dated 1677 at Newport. He is said to have married, about 1651, Elizabeth   , who was born 1629 and died 1684. They had the following children:

1. John married Deborah Reynolds.
2. Daniel, married Eleanor Carpenter.
3. James married Jane Browning.
4. HENRY (of further mention).
5. Richard, married (1) Mehitabel Larkin; (2) Priscilla Carpenter.
6. Benjamin, married Susannah.
7. William, marriedThankful Hamilton.
8, Jeremiah, married Mary.
9. A daughter.

HENRY SWEET Married MARY at Newport, R. I. (date unknown). He died at Attleboro, Mass., on   . They had the following children, who were born at East Greenwich, R. I.,

1. Henry, born March 11, 1682.
2. John, born March 24, 1684.
3. Joseph, born March 7, 1687.
4. BENHAMIN (of further mention} born March 29, 1690.
5. Mary, born February 10, 1692.
6. Johannah, born February 13, 1695.
7. William, born August 1, 1689.
8. Eals (a daughter) born July 10, 1700.
9. Ruth, born July 10, 1700.
10. Elizabeth, born February 25, 1704.
11. Susanna, born February 25, 1704.
12. Griffin, born September 15, 1709.
13. Hannah, born February 8, 1711-12.

BENJAMIN SWEET is described as "Captain" and he married Susanna . They had the following childre, all of whom were born in East Greenwich, R. I.

1. Robert, born June 28, 1718.
2. Ruth, born May 8, 1790.
3. Benjamin, born February 6, 1721-2.
4. Henry, born November 10, 1723.
5. FRANCIS (of further mention) born March 8, 1725-6.
6. Theodosha, born October 30, 1727.
7. Susannah, born July 25, 1729.
8. Amey, born April 22, 1731.
9. Welthian (daughter) born February 3, 1732-3.
10. Hannah, born November 19, 1734
11. Theophilis, born December 16, 1736.
12. David, born December 2, 1738.

FRANCIS SWEET married SARAH . Their first five children are recorded in Vital Records of Rhode Island as having been born at West Greenwich, but after 1758 there is not any record of the family as being then in Rhode Island. The Federal Census of 1790 shows Francis living side by side with his son JONATHAN at Cambridge, then in Albany County, now in Washington County, in New York State, and legal documents show that FRANCIS was still in Cambridge in 1792. A search has been made for his will or for any records of his estate in the six southern counties of Vermont, in the nearby counties of New York, Ostego County, to which his son Jonathan removed, but without result. It is, therfore, difficult to say when or where Francis died. It seems probable, however, that he came to Cambridge between 1758 and 1790. Whether it was by way of Vermont, as we now know that state, it is difficult to say, because the boundaries of Vermont and indeed its existence, were disputed between the states of New Hampshire and New York until for some years after the Revolution, and the town of Cambridge itself with the nearby towns was for some time in rebellion against the state of New York and considered itself to be a part of the State of Vermont, so that any person living in Cambridge might for some years have considered himself to be a Vermonter rather than a New Yorker. Francis and Sarah had the following children, and perhaps others:

1. Joanna, born November 14, 1750.
2. Henry, born August 5, 1752.
3. Alice, born February 22, 1754.
4. Robert, born December 8, 1755.
5. Peleg, born January 21, 1758.
6. JONATHAN (of further mention), born April 29, 1761.
7. Elee.

THE REVEREND JONATHAN SWEET married TEMPERANCE HOLDRIDGE in 1782. In 1790 he is listed in the first census as living at Cambridge, New York, beside his father, and at that period and place he had one son over 16, one son under 16, and two females were living with him besides his wife, presumably daughters, although the census unfortunately does not classify them according to relationship. He apparently continued at Cambridge until 1794, in whichyear he removed to Burlington in Ostego County, New York, where he is variously described in legal documents as "Yeoman" and "Farmer". In 1794 he made a profession of faith at Burlington, and united in organizing the Second Baptist Church there. He was ordained as a minister in 1812, and was pastor of the Church of Burlington until 1822. Some time after that date he removedto Diamond Grove, near Jacksonville in Morgan County, Illinois. The Diamond Grove Society of Baptists is one of the oldest in Illinois, andwas constituted on April 26, 1823.

The REVEREND JONATHAN SWEET is said to have been one of the earliest pastors and he was the first moderator of the Springfield Baptist Association of Churches. On January 18, 1825 Jonathan Sweet, Sr. appears as the first Public Administrator of Morgan County. JONATHAN SWEET and TEMPERANCE SWEET died in 1840 and 1842 and are buried near Jacksonville. A list of their children, not necessarily complete as are follows:

1. Peleg (of further mention), born May 3, 1786 in Vermont.
2. Robert, born in 1788.
3. Joseph, born in 1789 in New York.
4. Job, born 1790.
5. Joel, born 1792 in New York State.
6. Alva, born 1800.
7. Francis, born 1808, married Ann Ccudellin 1833 and died in 1876.
8. Lois, married Holnes.

PELEG SWEET married ABIGAIL BARDEEN, July 3, 1808. They were married in the State of New York, where he had spent his childhood and youth. Soon after marriage he had thoughts of trying his fortune in the west. Immediately before 1812 he had been living at Burlinton N. Y., because his name and his father's and that of his brother, Joseph, appear as witnesses on the will of his great uncle, David Sweet, which was admitted to probate in Ostego County, on February 12, 1812. In 1812 he spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going west, receiving much opposition. In 1812 he and his family moved to Ohio. In 1818 he went to the territory of Illinois. It then took three months to make the journey. He and his family first settled in Gallatin County, in the southern part of the Territory, as the northern part was under the control of the Indians and unsafe for white man. Here they enduredthe privation of a frontier life, living on hominy and deer meat for months. Their shelter was a log hut, floorless and doorless. They were surrounded by wild beasts and their neighbor was six miles away. The few citizens made their own laws and were sometimes obliged to tieup and whip offenders. As the danger from the Indians decreased he and his family moved northward and settled four miles southeast of Jacksonville. He undoubtedly moved to Morgan County at the same time as his father, JONATHAN, because he and his brother, Robert, signed togather the constitution of the Morganian Society, an Anti-slavery society which is supposed to have been constituted in 1823. Not far from his signature appears that of another brother, Joseph Sweet. In any case he was there before 1830, according to county records. In 1843 he traded for a large tract of land in Woodford County, to which he removed in 1848. Here he called all his children to him and settled them around him, which was a great pleasure to him in his declining years. Here he was active in the affairs of the Baptist Church of Woodford County, Illinois, as he had been elsewhere. In the history of the Baptist Church of Woodford County, Illinois, by A. F. Marshall, n. p. 1913, it is said on page 13, with reference to the Washburn Baptist Church:

"One of the principal founders of the church was PELEG SWEET, a brother of Elder Joel Sweet. He had a family of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters, all members of the church, the husbands ofthe daughters all having been baptized, and nine of the grandchildren, all on prefession of faith, making over thirty in his family belonging to the church. The membership at that time was seventy-five. Peleg Sweet died at Washburn on September 13, 1870. The following are his children:

1. Lamira, born January 10, 1810, married Stephen Howard on March 29, 1832 and she died May 8, 1899. Stephen Howard was born December 18, 1802 and died July 4, 1884.
2. Mary, born February 19, 1813, married Isaac W. Carson April 5, 18 and she died October 19, 1881. He was born April 29, 1816 and died August 21, 1896.

The REVEREND JONATHAN SWEET is said to have been one of the earliest pastors and he was the first moderator of the Springfield Baptist Association of Churches. On January 18, 1825 Jonathan Sweet, Sr. appears as the first Public Administrator of Morgan County. JONATHAN SWEET and TEMPERANCE SWEET died in 1840 and 1842 and are buried near Jacksonville. A list of their children, not necessarily complete as are follows:

1. Peleg (of further mention), born May 3, 1786 in Vermont.
2. Robert, born in 1788.
3. Joseph, born in 1789 in New York.
4. Job, born 1790.
5. Joel, born 1792 in New York State.
6. Alva, born 1800.
7. Francis, born 1808, married Ann Ccudellin 1833 and died in 1876.
8. Lois, married   Holnes.

PELEG SWEET married ABIGAIL BARDEEN, July 3, 1808. They were married in the State of New York, where he had spent his childhood and youth. Soon after marriage he had thoughts of trying his fortune in the west. Immediately before 1812 he had been living at Burlinton N. Y., because his name and his father's and that of his brother, Joseph, appear as witnesses on the will of his great uncle, David Sweet, which was admitted to probate in Ostego County, on February 12, 1812. In 1812 he spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going west, receiving much opposition. In 1812 he and his family moved to Ohio. In 1818 he went to the territory of Illinois. It then took three months to make the journey. He and his family first settled in Gallatin County, in the southern part of the Territory, as the northern part was under the control of the Indians and unsafe for white man. Here they enduredthe privation of a frontier life, living on hominy and deer meat for months. Their shelter was a log hut, floorless and doorless. They were surrounded by wild beasts and their neighbor was six miles away. The few citizens made their own laws and were sometimes obliged to tieup and whip offenders. As the danger from the Indians decreased he and his family moved northward and settled four miles southeast of Jacksonville. He undoubtedly moved to Morgan County at the same time as his father, JONATHAN, because he and his brother, Robert, signed togather the constitution of the Morganian Society, an Anti-slavery society which is supposed to have been constituted in 1823. Not far from his signature appears that of another brother, Joseph Sweet. In any case he was there before 1830, according to county records. In 1843 he traded for a large tract of land in Woodford County, to which he removed in 1848. Here he called all his children to him and settled them around him, which was a great pleasure to him in his declining years. Here he was active in the affairs of the Baptist Church of Woodford County, Illinois, as he had been elsewhere. In the history of the Baptist Church of Woodford County, Illinois, by A. F. Marshall, n. p. 1913, it is said on page 13, with reference to the Washburn Baptist Church:

"One of the principal founders of the church was PELEG SWEET, a brother of Elder Joel Sweet. He had a family of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters, all members of the church, the husbands ofthe daughters all having been baptized, and nine of the grandchildren, all on prefession of faith, making over thirty in his family belonging to the church. The membership at that time was seventy-five. Peleg Sweet died at Washburn on September 13, 1870. The following are his children:

1. Lamira, born January 10, 1810, married Stephen Howard on March 29, 1832 and she died May 8, 1899. Stephen Howard was born December 18, 1802 and died July 4, 1884.

JOHN SWEET MARRIED MARY (maiden name not known). He came to America from Wales about 1632, accompanied by his wife, two sons and a daughter, and first settled at Salem. In Felt's Annals of Salem, vol. 2, p. 456, it is stated that "June 6th, 1637 John Sweet was fined for killing a wolf dog of Gov. Endicott's in the yard of the latter. It is said that in the same year John removed to Providence with Roger Williams, who was also a Welshman. He must have died about 1638, in which year his widow married Ezekliel Holliman. John's land in Providence is said to have been where the present State House now stands. That Mary's husband was John and not Issac, as is commonly said , is proved by a deed of their younger son, James, given in Kingston, R. I., Nov. 8, 1686, in which he speaks of " my father, John Sweet, deceased, who was one of the first purchasers of Providence." See The Owl, Vol. 2, No. 2. His elder son was (not known).

JOHN SWEET, who was born in Wales about 1620. He appears to have been a lawabiding, respected and frequently honored member of the towns of Providence and Warwick, R. I. He and his younger brother, James, are included among the 31 persons, who were admitted with the 12 original purchasers of Warwick previous to June 5, 1648. On June 2, 1651 and again on June 1, 1658, he was appointed Sergeant. In 1655 he was made on October 18, 1660 a Commissioner from Newport. In 1660 he bought land at Narragansett (Kingstown), and in 1671 he was living at Acquidnessett (Wickford). He had a grist mill and other works on the Potowomut and was burnt out by the Indians during King Philip's war, 1675. He died in 1677 after July 16. His will is dated 1677 at Newport. He is said to have married, about 1651, Elizabeth , who was born 1629 and died 1684. They had the following children:

1. John married Deborah Reynolds.
2. Daniel, married Eleanor Carpenter.
3. James married Jane Browning.
4. HENRY (of further mention).
5. Richard, married (1) Mehitabel Larkin; (2) Priscilla Carpenter.
6. Benjamin, married Susannah.
7. William, marriedThankful Hamilton.
8, Jeremiah, married Mary.
9. A daughter.

HENRY SWEET Married MARY at Newport, R. I. (date unknown). He died at Attleboro, Mass., on . They had the following children, who were born at East Greenwich, R. I.,

1. Henry, born March 11, 1682.
2. John, born March 24, 1684.
3. Joseph, born March 7, 1687.
4. BENHAMIN (of further mention) born March 29, 1690.
5. Mary, born February 10, 1692.
6. Johannah, born February 13, 1695.
7. William, born August 1, 1689.
8. Eals (a daughter) born July 10, 1700.
9. Ruth, born July 10, 1700.
10. Elizabeth, born February 25, 1704.
11. Susanna, born February 25, 1704.
12. Griffin, born September 15, 1709.
13. Hannah, born February 8, 1711-12.

BENJAMIN SWEET is described as "Captain" and he married Susanna . they had the following children, all of whom were born in East Greenwich, I.

1. Robert, born June 28, 1718.
2. Ruth, born May 8, ~~1790~~. 1720
3. Benjamin, born February 6, 1721-2.
4. Henry, born November 10, 1723.
5. FRANCIS (of further mention) born March 8, 1725-6.
6. Theodosha, born October 30, 1727.
7. Susannah, born July 25, 1729.
8. Amey, born April 22, 1731.
9. Welthian (daughter) born February 3, 1732-3.
10. Hannah, born November 19, 1734
11. Theophilis, born December 16, 1736.
12. David, born December 2, 1738.

FRANCIS SWEET married SARAH . Their first five children are recorded in Vital Records of Rhode Island as having been born at West Greenwich, but after 1758 there is not any record of the family as being then in Rhode Island. The Federal Census of 1790 shows Francis living side by side with his son JONATHAN at Cambridge, then in Albany County, now in Washington County, in New York State, and legal documents show that FRANCIS was still in Cambridge in 1792. A search has been made for his will or for any records of his estate in the six southern counties of Vermont, in the nearby counties of New York, Ostego County, to which his son Jonathan removed, but without result. It is, therfore, difficult to say when or where Francis died. It seems probable, however, that he came to Cambridge between 1758 and 1790. Whether it was by way of Vermont, as we now know that state, it is difficult to say, because the boundaries of Vermont and indeed its existence, were disputed between the states of New Hampshire and New York until for some years after the Revolution, and the town of Cambridge itself with the nearby towns was for some time in rebellion against the state of New York and considered itself to be a part of the State of Vermont, so that any person living in Cambridge might for some years have considered himself to be a Vermonter rather than a New Yorker. Francis and Sarah had the following children, and perhaps others:

1. Joanna, born November 14, 1750.
2. Henry, born August 5, 1752.
3. Alice, born February 22, 1754.
4. Robert, born December 8, 1755.
5. Peleg, born January 21, 1758.
6. JONATHAN (of further mention), born April 29, 1761.
7. Elee.

THE REVEREND JONATHAN SWEET married TEMPERANCE HOLDRIDGE in 1782. In 1790 he is listed in the first census as living at Cambridge, New York, beside his father, and at that period and place he had one son over 16, one son under 16, and two females were living with him besides his wife, presumably daughters, although the census unfortunately does not classify them according to relationship. He apparently continued at Cambridge until 1794, in whichyear he removed to Burlington in Ostego County, New York, where he is variously described in legal documents as "Yeoman" and "Farmer". In 1794 he made a profession of faith at Burlington, and united in organizing the Second Baptist Church there. He was ordained as a minister in 1812, and was pastor of the Church of Burlington until 1822. Some time after that date he removedto Diamond Grove, near Jacksonville in Morgan County, Illinois. The Diamond Grove Society of Baptists is one of the oldest in Illinois, andwas constituted on April 26, 1823.

1. Lamira, born January 10, 1810, married Stephen Howard on March 29, 1832 and she died May 8, 1899. Stephen Howard was born December 18, 1802 and died July 4, 1884.
2. Mary, born February 19, 1813, married Isaac W. Carson April 5, 1838 and she died October 19, 1881. He was born April 29, 1816 and died August 21, 1896.
3. Temperance, born February 21, 1815, married Tilton Howard (a brother of Stephen), May 8, 1834 and she died March 24, 1875. He was born March 30, 1814 and died March 24, 1878, He was a deacon in the Washburn Baptist Church in 1854.
4. Elizabeth, born September 18, 1817, married Alanson Howard (a brother of Stephen) October 18, 1838. He was born February 17, 1810 and died October 9, 1880.
5. Isaac N. (of further mention).
6. Catherine, born April 25, 1823, married E. Dunham on January 26, 1846. He was born October 13, 1814 anddied January 5, 1891.

BENJAMIN⁴ SWEET is described as "CAPTAIN" and he married SUSANNA . They had the following children, all of whom were born at East Greenwich, R. I.:

i. Robert, b. June 28, 1718.
ii. Ruth, b. May 8, 1720.
iii. Benjamin, b. Feb. 6, 1721-2.
iv. Henry, b. November 10, 1723.

vii. Susannah, b. July 25, 1729.
viii. Amey, b. Apr. 22, 1731.

xi. Theophilus, b. December 16, 1736.
xii. David, b. Dec. 2, 1738.

FRANCIS⁵ SWEET married SARAH . Their first five children are recorded in the Vital Records of Rhode Island as having been born at West Greenwich, but after 1758 there is not any record of the family as being then in Rhode Island. The Federal Census of 1790 shows FRANCIS living side by side with his son JONATHAN at Cambridge, then in Albany County, now in Washington County, in New York State, and legal documents show that FRANCIS was still in Cambridge in 1792. A search has been made for his will or for any record of his estate in the six southern counties of Vermont, in the nearby counties of New York and in Otsego County, to which his son JONA-

THAN removed, but without result. It is, therefore, difficult to say when or where FRANCIS died. It seems most probable, however, that he came to Cambridge between 1758 and 1790. Whether it was by way of Vermont, as we now know the state, it is difficult to say, because the boundaries of Vermont and indeed its existence, were disputed between the states of New Hampshire and New York until for some years after the Revolution, and the town of Cambridge itself with the nearby towns was for some time in rebellion against the State of New York and considered itself to be a part of the State of Vermont, so that any person living in Cambridge might for some years have considered himself to be a Vermonter rather than a New Yorker. FRANCIS and SARAH had the following children, and perhaps others:

i. Joanna, b. Nov. 14, 1750.
ii. Henry, b. Aug. 5, 1752.
iii. Alice, b. Feb. 22, 1754.
iv. Robert, b. Dec. 8, 1755.
v. Peleg, b. Jan. 21, 1758.
vi. JONATHAN, b. Apr. 29, 1761.
vii. Elee.

The REV. JONATHAN^6 SWEET married at on , 1782, TEMPERANCE HOLDRIDGE. In 1790 he is listed in the first census as living at Cambridge, New York, beside his father, and at that period and place he had one son over 16, one son under 16, and two females were living with him beside his wife, presumably daughters, although the census unfortunately does not classify them according to relationship. He apparently con-

JOHN^{1} SWEET married MARY . He came to America from Wales about 1632, accompanied by his wife, two sons and a daughter, and first settled at Salem. In Felt's Annals of Salem, Vol. 2, p. 456, it is stated that "June 6th, 1637, John Sweet is fined for killing a wolf dog of Gov. Endicott's in the yard of the latter." It is said that in the same year JOHN removed to Providence with Roger Williams, who was also a Welshman. He must have died about 1638, in which year his widow married Ezekiel Holliman. JOHN'S land in Providence is said to have been where the present State House now stands. That MARY'S husband was JOHN and not Isaac, as is commonly said, is proved by a deed of their younger son, James, given in Kingston, R. I., Nov. 8, 1686, in which he speaks of "my father, John Sweet, deceased, who was one of the first purchasers of Providence." See The Owl, Vol. 2, No. 2. His elder son was

JOHN^{2} SWEET, who was born in Wales about 1620. He appears to have been a law-abiding, respected and frequently honored member of the towns of Providence and Warwick, R. I. He and his younger brother James are included among 31 persons, who were admitted with the 12 original purchasers of Warwick previous to June 5, 1648. On June 2, 1651, and again on June 1, 1658, he was appointed Sergeant. In 1655, at Warwick, ~~he was taxed for having in his possession "an anker," ten~~ gal~~lons, "of liquo~~r." In 1655 he was made a freeman and on Oct. 18, 1660, he was a Commissioner from Newport. In 1660 he bought lands at Narragansett (Kingstown), and in 1671 he was living at Acquidnessett (Wickford). He had a grist mill and other works on the Potowomut and was burnt out by the Indians during King Philip's war, 1675. He died in 1677, after July 16. His will is dated 1677 at Newport. He is said to have married, about 1651, ELIZABETH , who was born in 1629 and died 1684. They had the following children:

i. John, m. Deborah Reynolds.
ii. Daniel, m. Eleanor Carpenter.
iii. James, m. Jane Browning.
iv. HENRY (of further mention).
v. Richard, m. (1) Mehitabel Larkin; (2) Priscilla Carpenter.
vi. Benjamin, m. Susannah .
vii. William, m. Thankful Hamilton.
viii. Jeremiah, m. Mary .
ix. A daughter.

HENRY^3 SWEET married MARY at Newport, R. I., on . He died at Attleboro, Mass., on . They had the following children, who were born at East Greenwich, R. I.:

i. Henry, b. Mar. 11, 1682.
ii. John, b. Mar. 24, 1684.
iii. Joseph, b. Mar. 7, 1687.
iv. BENJAMIN (of further mention), b. Mar. 29, 1690.
v. Mary, b. Feb. 10, 1692.
vi. Johannah, b. Feb. 13, 1695.
vii. William, b. Aug. 1, 1698.
viii. Eals (daughter), b. July 10, 1700.
ix. Ruth, b. July 10, 1700.
x. Elizabeth, b. Feb. 25, 1704.

tinued at Cambridge until 1794, in which year he removed to Burlington in Otsego County, New York, where he is variously described in legal documents as ''Yeoman'' and ''Farmer.'' In 1794 he made a profession of faith at Burlington, and united in organizing the Second Baptist Church there. He was ordained as a minister in 1812, and was pastor of the church at Burlington until 1822. Some time after that date he removed to Diamond Grove, near Jacksonville, in Morgan County, Ill. The Diamond Grove Society of Baptists is one of the oldest in Illinois, and was constituted on April 26, 1823. The Rev. JONATHAN SWEET is said to have been one of its earliest pastors and he was the first moderator of the Springfield Baptist Association of Churches. On January 18, 1825, JONATHAN SWEET, Sr., appears as the first Public Administrator of Morgan County. JONATHAN and TEMPERANCE SWEET died in 1840 and 1842 and are buried near Jacksonville. A list of their children, not necessarily complete, is as follows:

i. PELEG (of further mention), b. May 3, 1786, in Vermont.
ii. Robert, b. 1788.
iii. Joseph, b. at , New York, 1789.
iv. Job, b. 1790.
v. Joel, b. 1792 in New York State.
vi. Alva, b. 1800.
vii. Francis, b. 1808, m. Ann Caudell in 1833 and d. in 1876.
viii. Lois, m. Holmes.

PELEG^{7} SWEET married, July 3, 1808, ABIGAIL BARDEEN, in the State of New York, where he had spent his childhood and youth. Soon after marriage he had thoughts of trying his fortune in the West. Immediately before 1812 he had been living at Burlington, N. Y., because his name and his father's and that of his brother Joseph appear as witnesses on the will of his great uncle, David Sweet, which was admitted to probate in Otsego County, N. Y., on February 12, 1812. In 1812 he spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West, receiving much opposition. In 1812 he and his family removed to Ohio.

In 1818 he went to the Territory of Illinois. It then took three months to make the journey. He and his family first settled in Gallatin County in the southern part of the Territory, as the northern part was under the control of the Indians and unsafe for white men. Here they endured the privations of a frontier life, living on hominy and deer meat for months; their shelter a log hut, floorless and doorless. They were surrounded by wild beasts and their nearest neighbor was six miles away. The few citizens made their own laws and were sometimes obliged to tie up and whip the offenders.

As the danger from the Indians decreased he and his family moved northward and settled four miles southeast of Jacksonville. He undoubtedly moved to Morgan County at the same time as his father, JONATHAN, because he and his brother Robert signed together the constitution of the Morganian Society, an anti-slavery society, which is supposed to have been constituted in 1823. Not far from his signature appears that of another brother, Joseph Sweet. In any case he was there before 1830, according to the county records.

In 1843 he traded for a large tract of land in Woodford County, to which he removed in 1846. Here he called all his children to him and settled them around him, which was a great pleasure to him in his declining years. Here at Washburn he was active in the affairs of the Baptist Church, as he had been elsewhere.

In the History of the Baptist Churches of Woodford County, Ill., by A. F. Marshall, n. p., 1913, it is said at page 13, with reference to the Washburn Baptist Church:

> "* * * One of the principal founders of the church was PELEG SWEET, a brother of Elder Joel Sweet. He had a family of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters, all members of the church, the husbands of the daughters all having been baptized, and nine of the grandchildren, all on profession of faith, making over thirty in his family belonging to the church. The membership at that time was seventy-five."

PELEG died at Washburn on Sept. 8, 1850. ABIGAIL died on Nov. 13, 1870.

SWEET

1. JOHN SWETE of England inherited Trayne or Traine in Modbury, Devonshire, England, about 1540. The Sweets had been living in that neighborhood since 1438. Among his children were Adrian and ROBERT (2). Adrian Sweet had a son, John, who came to Boston, so that John of Boston and JOHN^1 (3) of Rhode Island were cousins. According to a genealogy given in the Visitation of Devon in 1620, JOHN SWEET'S wife was MARY PERIAM, daughter of JOHN PERIAM (who was the son of WILLIAM PERIAM), and of MARGARET HONE of Ottery St. Mary, who was the daughter of ROBERT HONE.

2. ROBERT SWEET married JOHANNA. Their son JOHN^1 (3) was born in Devonshire, probably at Modbury, in 1579.

3. JOHN^1 SWEET, the immigrant ancestor, married MARY in England. He came to America, probably in the Mary and John, in 1630, together with his wife, his two sons, JOHN^2 and James, and his daughter, Meribah, later renamed Renewed, who later married Jan Gereardy of New York. They first settled at Salem. In Felt's Annals of Salem, Vol. 2, p. 456, it is stated that "June 6th, 1637, John Sweet is fined for killing a wolf dog of Gov. Endicott's in the yard of the latter." It is said that in the same year JOHN removed to Providence with Roger Williams. He must have died about 1638, in which year his widow married Ezekiel Holliman. She died in 1681. JOHN'S land in Providence is said to have been where the present State House now stands. That MARY'S husband was JOHN and not Isaac, as is commonly said, is proved by a deed of their younger son, James, given in Kingston, R. I., Nov. 8, 1686, in which he speaks of "my father, John Sweet, deceased, who was one of the first pur-
